

SUGGESTIONS FOR COMPLETING YOUR VICTIM IMPACT STATEMENT

The following suggestions are offered only as a guide. Please answer as many questions as you wish. If you need more space, please use additional pages and simply attach these pages to the form when you return it.

Only you know how to best describe the effects this crime has had on you and those close to you. We realize it may be difficult to put into words the impact this crime has had on you and those close to you. Many victims find it helpful to organize their statement by the emotional, physical, and financial effects. Some victims have found it helpful to write a rough draft of their statement before completing the final statement. If you should need any assistance in completing your victim impact statement, please feel free to contact me for assistance at (517) 279-4319.

If you would like to tell the court about the emotional impact of this crime, you may want to consider:

- ★ Has this crime affected your lifestyle or those close to you?
- ★ Have your feelings about yourself or your life changed since the crime?
- ★ Has your ability to relate to others changed?

If you or your family members were injured, you may wish to tell the court about the physical impact of this crime. You may wish to:

- ★ Describe the physical injuries you or members of your family suffered.
- ★ Describe how long these injuries lasted or how long they are expected to last.
- ★ Describe any medical treatment you have received or expect to receive in the future.

If you are making a written statement, you may want to discuss how this crime has affected your ability to earn a living and how it has affected you financially. We have also included a separate Victim Financial Statement to help you fully record the financial impact of this crime. It is important to be as complete as possible in describing your financial losses as this information will be used by the probation department and provided to the judge for determining restitution. Restitution is the possible payment by the defendant to you for any financial losses you may have suffered as a result of this crime.

JUST FOR LITTLE KIDS

To Parents: if your child is too young to read or is just learning to read, you will want to help your child fill out the victim impact statement, when helping your child, you will want to read the directions aloud to your child, talk about what feelings are (happy, sad, mad, scared, or any other feelings you think are appropriate), and what your child may want to think about when they are drawing or writing on the statement, please do not tell your child what to draw or write. This is your child's chance to tell the judge how he or she is feeling about what has happened, if your child would rather draw a picture of a bird, a boat or write a story about bumblebees, this is okay as well. Should your child become uncomfortable in any way while filling out the victim impact statement, reassure your child that he or she does not have to fill out the form unless he or she wants to.
